From Saturday June 6, to Tuesday June 9, 1789

Westminster, June 9.

THIS Day His Majesty went in State to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, presented to His Majesty Henry Addington, Esq; whom they had chosen to be their Speaker: And the Lord Chancellor having, by the King's Command, signified His Majesty's Approbation of their Choice, His Majesty was pleased to retire, and the Commons withdrew.

Whitehall, June 9.

The King has been pleased to grant the Dignity of a Viscount of the Kingdom of Great Britain to the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Sydney, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, by the Name, Stile, and Title of Viscount Sydney, of St. Leonard's, in the County of Glocester.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend Archibald Menzies to the Church and Parish of Dull, in the Presbitery of Dunkeld and County of Perth, vacant by the Promotion of the Reverend Patrick Macvean.

The King has also been pleased to present the Reverend Andrew Spence to the Church and Parish of Cockburnspath, in the Presbitery of Dunbar and County of Berwick, vacant by the Death of the Reverend David Spence.

Whitehall, June 9.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portrieve, Burgesses and Freemen of the Borough of Ardfert, in the County of Kerry.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portrieve, Burgesses and Freemen of the Borough of Ardfert, in the County of Kerry, humbly beg Leave to convey to your Majesty the warm Sentiments of heartfelt Satisfaction by which we have been animated on receiving the joyful Intelligence of your Majesty's perfect Recovery from your late severe and afflicting Indisposition.

Remote from your Majesty's Throne, yet feeling, in common with our Fellow Subjects, the benign Influence of your Majesty's mild and constitutional Government, and gratefully sensible of the manifold and important Benefits which the Kingdom of Ireland in particular has received since the auspicious Commencement of your Majesty's Reign, we have especial Reason to rejoice in an Event which we are taught, by happy Experience, to regard as an ample Security for the Continuance of every Blessing which a free, brave and loyal People can derive from the paternal Rule of a wise, a just, and a beloved Patriot King.

We therefore most cordially unite with every Description of your Majesty's affectionate Subjects in ardent Thanksgivings to Almighty God for this so signal a Favour of His Gracious Providence, and in earnest Prayers, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, attended with as great private Happiness to your Majesty as it must be with public Prosperity to all your Dominions.

Signed, by unanimous Desire of the Corporation,
Thomas Graves, Portrieve.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Portrieve, Burgesses and Freemen of the Borough of Ardfert in the County of Kerry, beseech your Majesty, with your accustomed Condescension, favourably to accept of our most sincere Congratulations on the perfect Recovery of our beloved Monarch.

Having long regarded your Majesty as a Pattern to your Sex, in every Virtue that can adorn the Female Character, we must ever take a dutiful and affectionate Interest in your Happiness; and as we felt, with the most profound and tender Sympathy, for the deep Anxiety which agitated your Bosom during the afflicting Period of His Majesty's Indisposition, so we now exult with the most unfeigned and lively Joy in the happy Alternative of Peace and Consolation which has succeeded so severe a Trial, an and we offer up the moſt ardent Wiſhes that, aſſociated with your Royal Conſort in domeſtic Happineſs as you are in the Hearts of His People, your Majeſty may long enjoy the dear Delight of beholding Him reign over Kingdoms, united by Duty, Loyalty and mutual Intereſt, in uninterrupted Health, Peace and Proſperity.

Signed, by unanimous Deſire of the Corporation,
Thomas Graves, Portrieve.
